A focus on communities and creation of corporate value More than 80% affected by COVID-19 -Results of the 2020 Survey of Mécénat Activities-

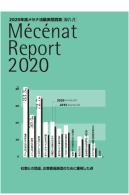

The results for the 2020 Survey of Mécénat Activities conducted annually by the Association for Corporate Support of the Arts (5-3-2 Shiba, Minato-ku, Tokyo, President: Motoki Ozaki) for companies and corporate foundations throughout the country have been finalized.

The 2020 Survey received responses from 465 companies and 178 corporate foundations. Total costs for Mécénat activities amounted to ¥21,374,200,000 for companies (288 respondents, average ¥74.22 million per company) and ¥58,411,110,000 for foundations (147 respondents, average ¥397.35 million per foundation). The number of activities totaled 1,649 for companies, and 692 for foundations.

A compilation of the survey results, "The Mécénat Report 2020," was published on March 25th with a PDF version also available on the Association's website. In addition, a briefing session for the 2020 Survey of the Mécénat Activities is planned. Details will be announced at a later date on the Association for Corporate Support of the Arts website and elsewhere.

1. The efforts for Mécénat activities are focused on "communities" and the "creation of corporate value."

- As has been the trend in recent years, the most common objectives for Mécénat efforts were "To support art and culture," followed by "To connect to company business and create corporate value."
- For points of focus in (a) through (c) below, 60-80% of the companies selected options that include "region" or "community." There is also an increased awareness of the use of Mécénat activities for corporate branding compared to five years ago, while the promotion of art and culture is kept as a fundamental principle.

Comparison with 5 years ago 28.4 Social welfare Health and medicine 17.2 Sports 21.9 Academic and research 66.3 Fostering the next generation and social education 8.3 Child-rearing support 4.7 Science and technology 19.5 Environmm 24.9 International exchange and International support 16.0 Relief for disaster-stricken areas 7.1 Disaster prevention and crime prevention 65.1 Community development and regional revitalization 77 Creating foundations for NPOs 2020 MA/N=169  Human rights 2015 MA/N=203 6.5 Creating jobs and employment support

3.6 Peace

4.7 Other

22.5 SDGs[Sustainable development goals]

In (a), "Promotion of art and culture as a whole" had the highest percentage, almost the same as five years ago, followed by "Promotion of community culture" in second place, though its percentage increased the most.

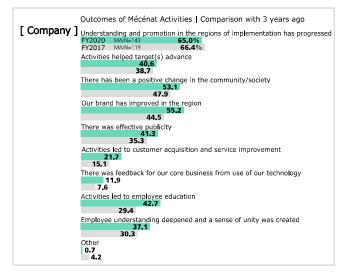

In (b), "Fostering the next generation and social education" and "Community development and regional revitalization" increased, and the percentages were roughly the same.

c. Points of focus in connecting to company business and creation of corporate value | Comparison with 5 years ago 83.3 Building relationships with local communities 50.4 Building relationships with customers 2020 MA/N=282 72.7 Enhancement of corporate image 41.8 To increase corporate recognition 42.2 36.4 To establish own corporate culture _ 2015 MA/N=236 34.9 Publicity effects 37.9 To demonstrate corporate uniqueness 7.1 To acquire talented employees 24.8 Employee education 26-2 Effective use of company resources such as facilities 17.4 Commercialization of culture-related business 1.8 Other

This question has been added from the 2017 survey, and comparisons between FY 2017 and FY 2020 were published

In (c), the trend remained unchanged from five years ago, with "Building relationships with local communities" being the most selected at over 80%. "Enhancement of corporate image" was the secondhighest, and there was a noticeable increase in responses to the fourth and subsequent options related to corporate branding, such as "To establish own corporate culture," "To increase corporate recognition," and "To demonstrate corporate uniqueness." 2. An increasing number cited effects within the company and effects on communities as outcomes of Mécénat activities.

The top three options for the outcomes of the activities included the words "region" or "community," for example, "Understanding and promotion in the regions of implementation has progressed." The number of respondents who said there were internal outcomes such as employee education and a sense of unity, in addition to brand improvement and effective publicity, also increased.

3. More than 80% of companies and foundations were affected by COVID-19 at the time of response in September 2020.

- As for specific impacts, there were many cancellations and postponements of voluntary or supported programs. There was also a significant number who responded that the facilities they operate closed.
- In responses from both companies and foundations, many stated that for activities that were difficult to implement, alternative approaches involving the internet and other methods were used, and different implementation timeframes were trialed with infection prevention measures as a basic principle.
